About your program

What is (or will be) the focus of your program?

- Social and emotional wellbeing. Mentoring to assist young people to increase their self-esteem, self-efficacy and resilience by actively supporting their social and emotional wellbeing. The focus includes improving both the young person's life skills and the positive connections they have with their community.
- Individual talents and leadership. Mentoring to assist young people to further develop their individual talents and/or leadership skills in a specific area (e.g. sports, photography, drama) in order for them to reach their full potential.
- Identity, culture and faith. Mentoring to assist young people to grow in their understanding of their faith and/or culture and cultural identity. The program actively supports young people to be proud and confident of their identity and culture and to be able to exercise this in their community.
- Youth justice and crime prevention. Mentoring to assist young people to avoid anti-social and offending behaviours by encouraging connectedness with positive elements in their community and increasing protective factors.
- Education, training and employment. Mentoring to assist young people to positively engage in and maintain their participation in education, training and employment. These programs assist young people to develop a vision for their future and provide support to achieve their education, training and career goals.

What is your delivery method of your program?

- Face to face. The mentoring sessions are held in person, face to face.
- E-mentoring. Electronic mentoring uses technology to connect the mentor with the young person. This can be text based or utilising Voice over IP (Internet Protocol) and video technology.

What is the relationship style? (Please select one)

- One to one. One mentor matched with one young person.
- Group. One mentor matched with up to four young people (If the ratio is greater than 1:4, this is no longer considered quality mentoring).
- Team. Two or more mentors matched with one young person

What is or will be the setting for your program?

- School
Mentoring occurs on the school premises.
 - Community
Mentoring occurs within the local community, utilising community spaces such as parks, cafés, libraries etc.
 - Workplace
Mentoring occurs on the business premises.
 - Other Site
Mentoring occurs in other site based locations including but not limited to universities, juvenile justice centres, youth centres, football clubs etc.
